

MultiFaith Series

Respect for identity • Relationships between different communities • Commitment to the common good

Advancing Interfaith Excellence

Thursday, September 20th, 11:30-12:30 in Mellon, Conover Room

Chatham University worked with IFYC in a one-year partnership to advance interfaith cooperation on Chatham's campus. The comprehensive report from Interfaith Youth Core (IFYC) about the campus climate on religious and non-religious experiences as well as the insight from working group sessions provided a blueprint for future interfaith efforts at Chatham. Come join us as we kick off Chatham's first Multi-Faith Series event, where you get engage, think and explore intersectional topics around faith and systems of belief.

Co-sponsored by the Interfaith Youth Core Committee

Dis/obedience: LGBTQ+ Identities in Judaism(s)

Thursday, October 25th, 11:30-12:30 in Mellon, Conover Room

Join us for education and dialogue around LGBTQ and Jewish identities with an exploration of traditional and contemporary sources. This will include follow-up dialogue from the movie, Disobedience, shown on October 23rd. Kosher food will be served.

Co-sponsored by The Edward & Rose Berman Hillel Jewish University Center

A Reflection on Women's Reproductive Rights, Considering Faith-Based Perspectives and Recent Ireland Historic Changes

Thursday, November 29th, 11:30-12:30 in Mellon, Conover Room

Co-sponsored by The Women's Institute & Global Focus

CHATHAM UNIVERSITY

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Multi-faith Series is co-sponsored by the Multi-faith Council and a generous grant from the Interfaith Youth Core (IFYC).