

the next chapter

Chatham University's Nursing Program Honor Society is now a member of Sigma Theta Tau International

Lead the way to greater care with Chatham University's nursing programs

Chatham University offers nursing degrees delivered in convenient online formats including the RN-to-BSN, MSN, and one of the "fastest-to-degree completion" DNP programs in the country.

All programs focus on evidence-based scientific nursing practice, patient safety, and quality outcomes; and are designed to help nurses reach career goals and impact quality health care delivery in a variety of health care environments.

Chatham nursing programs are known for graduating insightful, compassionate, and collaborative caregivers interested in pursuing leadership and management roles in the nursing field.

Find out more at chatham.edu/nursing.

The Chatham University Nursing Honor Society was chartered as an official chapter of the Honor Society of Nursing, Sigma Theta Tau International (STTI), in March 2014. Chi Zeta will offer full membership opportunities virtually, allowing distance students to participate from various regions of the United States, in active military deployment, and from other countries.

Be a part of something big.

Membership in STTI is by invitation and is extended to undergraduate students, graduate students, faculty, and professional nurses who have demonstrated superior scholastic, leadership and nursing achievements.

Development of a chapter is recognition of Chatham's commitment to supporting nursing excellence, student scholarship and leadership. It will provide Chatham nursing students with opportunities, including:

- Collaboration opportunities
- Access to up-to-date clinical information
- Continuing Education
- Networking
- Career Assistance
- Maintain connections with peers in an on-line format (important w/nursing programs being based on-line)
- Advocacy Opportunities
- Grants, Scholarship and Monetary Awards
- Conferences
- Leadership Programs
- Maintain connection due to online delivery system even if individuals move, transfer work settings, or have military obligations

Founded in 1922, members include practicing nurses, instructors, researchers, policymakers, entrepreneurs and others. The honor society's more than 480 chapters are located at institutions of higher education throughout the United States, as well as in Australia, Botswana, Brazil, Canada, Colombia, Ghana, Hong Kong, Japan, Kenya, Malawi, Mexico, the Netherlands, Pakistan, Singapore, South Africa, South Korea, Swaziland, Sweden, Taiwan, Tanzania and Wales.

More information about STTI can be found online at nursingsociety.org.