► WHY SAN JOSÉ?

San José is the capital city of Costa Rica and one of the country's most diverse areas. Both a cosmopolitan region and a traditional Central American city, San José offers a dense culture and history, and a bustling nightlife. Attractions in the city include the Costa Rican National Museum, the Jade Museum, and Central Park. While locals are incredibly friendly and many understand English, exploring the city is also a great way to improve Spanish language skills. San José's central location offers convenient access to the Pacific and Atlantic coasts as well as numerous national parks set in one of the most biodiverse countries in the world, Costa Rica.

► STUDY AT UNIVERSIDAD VERITAS

Universidad Veritas is an independent private university, fully accredited by the Costa Rican Ministry of Education. Founded fifty years ago, the University is renowned for its art, architecture and photography programs, and offers English and Spanish taught coursework in areas including sustainability, psychology and business, in which both international and domestic students are connected.

► ACADEMICS

Universidad Veritas offers a wide range of study abroad coursework on its tropical campus. Students can choose from English or Spanish taught courses, full-immersion study with local students, short-term programs and internships to build an educational experience that fits their needs. Intensive Spanish language courses are available each month.

Students can take up to five classes a term. Summer students normally take two classes per five-week term (late May and early July starts). Course offerings are available in the following areas: arts and humanities, biology and environmental sciences, business and economics, communications, marketing and technology, wellness and psychology, history, politics and international relations, sustainable studies, and theological studies.

See studyabroad.veritas.cr/academics/course-areas-and-descriptions/.

► INTERSHIPS

Internships are available in different areas of study such as design, sustainability, biology, and business. In order to qualify for the internship, students must have taken at least five courses in the area of study related to the internship, three of which must be junior or senior level courses. To intern, students must have a GPA of 2.6 or higher. Not all internships require Spanish language proficiency.

See studyabroad.veritas.cr/programs/internships.

► STUDENT SERVICES & ACTIVITIES

Veritas has many extracurricular activities and resources for students. The Cultural Integration Office (CIO) helps international students find ways to interact with locals and their culture. The CIO hosts a variety of events such as soccer tournaments, talent shows, student talks, a multicultural festival and tours around San José. Trips to different areas around Universidad Veritas are available throughout the semester as well as fee-based excursions to Tortuga island, the Irazu volcano, Nicaragua, and many other locations. Extracurricular activities include Illustrator Club, Yoga, Conversation Club, and a Scuba Diving group.

► ACCOMMODATIONS

Students can experience Costa Rican culture and practice their Spanish by living with a host family. All study abroad students are accommodated through homestays with Costa Rican families. Students will have a private room and will be provided breakfast and dinner 7 days a week. Laundry service is provided once a week. Lunch can be purchased on or near campus during the week for $4-$10. All families live within walking distance of campus. Veritas also provides a shuttle for students with evening classes or extracurricular activities. More accommodation details can be found at studyabroad.veritas.cr/student-life/homestay.
