

Earn your RN at BC3, then turn it into a BS in Nursing from Chatham University

The BC3+Chatham University RN-to-BSN partnership program makes it easy (and, at only $562 per credit, affordable!) to complete the 120 credits needed to earn your Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree. Practice experiences for Chatham University are completed in accordance with practice experience courses at approved sites of your choosing with the guidance of an approved preceptor. You can also work as a licensed RN while you complete your degree online.

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS

- YEARS 1-3: take RN courses at the BC3 main campus.
- Successfully earn your associate's degree and pass your registered nursing board examination for licensure.
- YEAR 4: earn your BSN degree online through Chatham (while earning experience [and money!] working as an RN).

Why complete your BSN through BC3 and Chatham?

- You're guaranteed admission to Chatham's prestigious nursing program once you pass the NCLEX (National Council Licensure Examination).
- You'll save thousands of dollars—and months of time—when compared to a traditional BSN degree.
